A Golf Obsession Spanning Generations:

1 of 1 review helpful Another kind of golf trip to Ireland By Charles A Lund This work was not based on a buddy trip or a travelog about Irish golf as told from the perspective of someone driving in a frenzy to play as many of the great courses of Ireland as possible in a small amount of time It was based on an extended trip to Belmullet and Carne Golf Links off the beaten path from the usual assortment of Ireland's great One man's quest to uncover the roots of his family's obsession with golf — a journey that takes him to his ancestral home in Ireland to Scotland and to the American heartland John Garrity is well known in the golf world for his writing for Sports Illustrated Golf Magazine and on Golf.com In this new book Garrity travels to the remote corner of Ireland from which his great grandfather left for America now home to a majestic golf course From Booklist Sports Illustrated writer Garrity offers a twist or two on the familiar golf travel memoir Combining some casual genealogy with an extended stay at one of the UK's great but relatively little
