Good Golf Is Easy:

0 of 0 review helpful Instructive simple enjoyable By Brian I very much enjoyed this book and it is a book which I will read again and study Of course the author is correct good golf is easy You just hit the ball into the hole If anyone really believes that then please do not buy this book The exercises he gives are not new but they are explained well They do complement the advice you get from your golf pro Wh About Good Golf is Easy In this book John Nornworthy shows you how to Make your swing and your overall game consistent and reliable Rediscover and draw upon your innate skills of coordination timing and feel you first learned as a child Save shots on every hole with techniques for trouble shots the short game and for putting Master your attitude so that you not only play your best but also positively enjoy yourself when playing If like most weekend golfers From the Inside Flap Foreword by Morgan Mason I have been blessed in many ways over the years One of those blessings was an impulse to take a golf lesson having never touched a club or had any interest before That day I was blessed again to meet John
